Memories '55

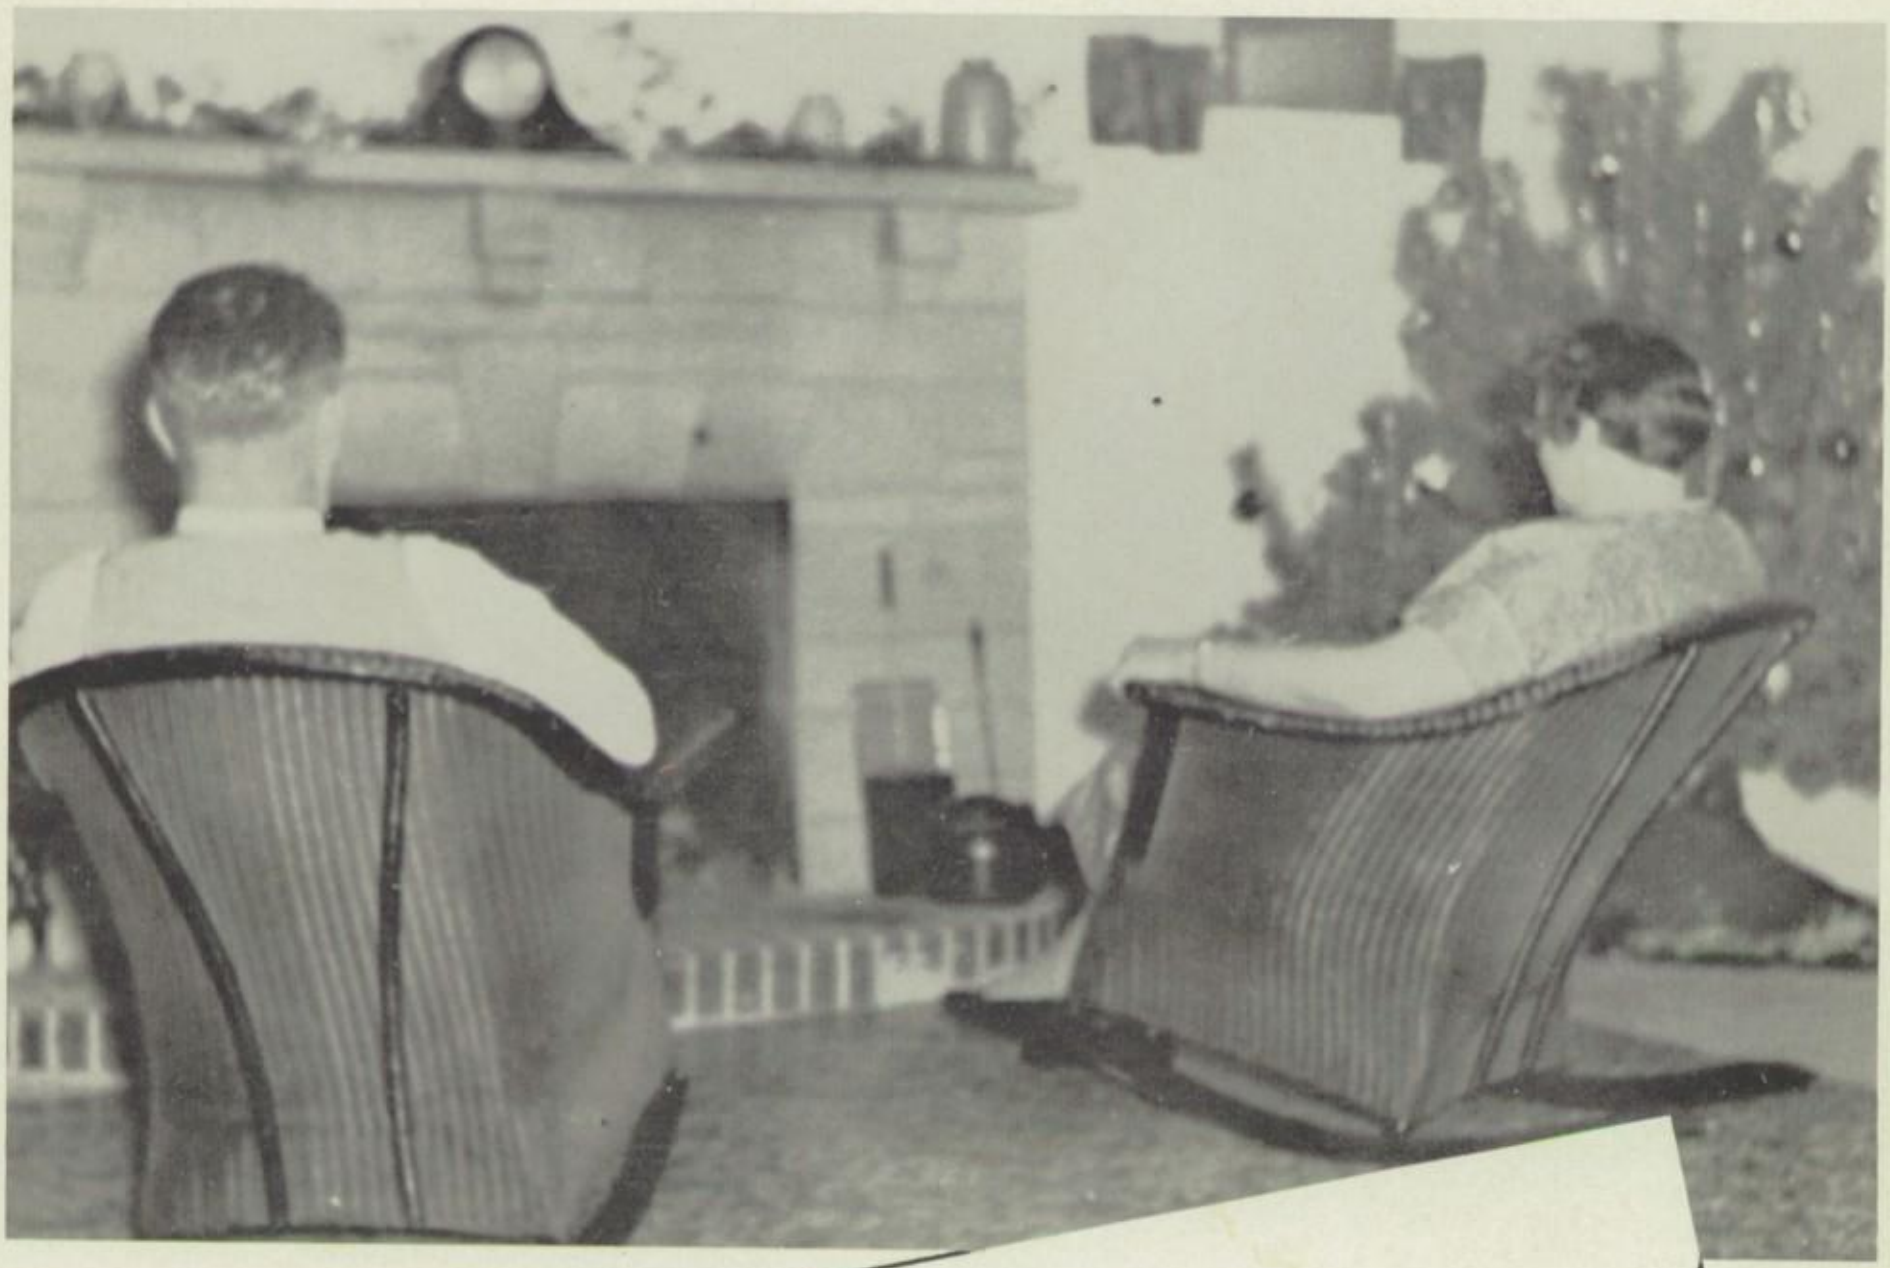
THIS

Valediction

Graduation is a happy time of the year. It is a happy time in your life, too. It means that you have achieved a goal for which you have spent twelve years in preparation. Today is the fulfillment of that dream. You are on the Road of Life--where it leads will depend on you. Remember your teachers who tried to teach you well, and remember your parents who sacrificed so much for you. Be a credit to your country, to your God, to your parents, and "to thine ownself be true."

Lloyd L. Wolf

Dedication



We, the Class of 1955, dedicate this yearbook to you, our parents, whose endless love and sacrifice have been so essential to the realization of our success. Through your patience, understanding, and much-needed advice you have set and maintained a living example of the advantages of ambition, determination and perseverance. We are grateful to you for helping us so unselfishly in order that we might know the joy of this long-awaited day.

Advisor

With very best wishes.
W B Betts

To Mr. W.B. Betts, our senior class and yearbook advisor, we wish to express our deepest appreciation for the time, patience, and advice which he so unselfishly gave in order to help us attain our many desires and ambitions. He has, through his friendly and unprejudiced manner, inspired us to many great achievements, and his unceasing loyalty and sympathetic understanding have made him our everlasting friend.

Class History

As wary freshmen we entered Lisbon High School forty-seven strong in September of 1951 to find that Mr. Rishel and Mr. Davis were to guide us through the year. At our first assembly we were warmly greeted by our new principal, Mr. Wolf. During the year we viewed the construction of the new addition to the high school, while writing autobiographies and short stories, and trying to get acquainted with the idea of being in Senior High School.

In 1952, we returned from the summer vacation, greeted once again by Mr. Rishel, our homeroom teacher. To start off the year we sponsored a skating party at the Braddock Skating Rink. Soon after our Halloween Party we began making plans for the Sweetheart Dance in February. This was our first activity so we tried to make it as big a success as we could. Before the big event we elected a King, Queen, and Court from the student body. After we had gotten rested from working for the dance, we started to get ready for a Farewell Party for the Seniors. In May we went to Gettysburg on our class trip and to a baseball game at Griffith Stadium in Washington.

We began our Junior year in the privacy of the portable under Mrs. Bevard's guidance. We sponsored another skating party and then started to think about our play, "Stranger In the Night." Our class rings were welcomed as an early Christmas gift. December brought about our winter dance, Snow Ball of '53, and a Christmas party. Cupid really cut some capers at our Cupid Capers dance. This was followed by our play under the direction of Miss Michael, Mrs. Fleming, and Mrs. Dennison. We found it hard to say good-bye to Mrs. Bevard but were more than glad to welcome Mrs. Kittridge. Our year came to a joyous climax with a colorful Garden of Memories Prom.

And then we were Seniors!

With Mr. Betts as our advisor we put our noses to the grindstone and settled down for a year of continuous work which began with canteens, bake sales, and our refreshment stand at the basketball games. But most important of all was our yearbook, on which we worked both day and night until it was stamped, sealed and delivered.

However it was not all work. Some of the things we did were mostly for fun. For example, although rain drops fell we set out with high hopes for the annual Senior day at Maryland University. After a tour of the campus we enjoyed lunch and then went to the football game. In spite of the weather we had a good time. And then at Christmas we enjoyed both our Frosty Frolics dance and a wonderful party during the vacation at Martha Ann's house. When we came back from the holidays, the ordering of our announcements and gowns made graduation seem much closer even though there was the whole spring to go. It did help to have as our last project a hillbilly dance in March. Then the last few weeks of school - they passed so quickly with Baccalaureate Service, Prom, and Farewell Party - they were all wonderful. And at last, on June 15 - after twelve years of readin', 'riting, and 'rithmetic we made it - Graduation.

Virginia Slagle

Class Prophecy

June 16, 1957

Dear Betty Lou,

Last Wednesday evening I attended the graduation exercises at school. Larry and Walter were there and told me all about Maryland University. It seemed so odd not to see Glen with them but he went to Colorado to study geology. They were telling about Gail and Doris, who are studying for a nursing career at Maryland. By the way, Larry is studying engineering and Walter will soon be his lawyer.

I wonder if "farmer" Stanley is as quiet as he used to be. I guess you have seen Robert and William, who are now well established in farming. I often see Jimmie around Lisbon, as he is working on the farm too. The athlete of the class, David, has his own filling station now.

I read in the paper that Virginia had taken a vacation from her secretarial job to go see Edwin play his first game in pro-baseball. He really fulfilled his ambition.

I saw Martha Ann Wednesday night too. She was on a vacation from Teachers College. She said Rose Marie is in college and is doing outstandingly well.

Remember how Shirley and Dewey used to be together all the time? Well, Shirley is now a secretary and Dewey is in the army. Nellie and Mary Jane are also doing secretarial work.

Although you didn't know him, Joe, who was new to us in the Senior year, is in the Navy.

Ann was able to be at the graduation exercises as she commutes to Catholic University. Loretta is still living contentedly with her parents, and Chris is working at his father's lumber yard. And, of course, you know my ring went to work after graduation.

Come to see us and I will tell you the rest of the news.

Good Luck,

Mary Frances

Last Will and Testament

On this the seventeenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five, we, the Senior Class of Lisbon High School, hereby bequeath these possessions to those unfortunate individuals who need them most.

Ann Arney's love for animals to Ruby Lee.
Walter Dennison's trumpet to Janet Bowman.
Nellie Leatherwood's giggles in class to Margaret Joyner.
Glen Gray's brains to Beverly Taylor.
Larry Esworthy's black hair to Jimmy Sweeps.
Virginia Slagle's typing ability to Patsy Warfield.
Edwin Justice's knack for baseball to Clarence Miles.
Rose Marie Warfield's red hair to Alwyn Campbell.
Robert Mullinix's knowledge of Math to Florence Trail.
William Flynn's friendliness to Gladys Browning.
Loretta Shipley's quiet manner to Gail Pond.
Gail Clark's shortness to Charlotte Fowble.
Martha Mullinix's singing voice to Paul Embrey.
Dewey Hopkins's curly hair to Larry Kline.
Shirley Taylor's smallness to George Bowman.
Stanley Mertz's friendliness with Mr. Wolf to Phillip Jones.
Doris Fleming's cheerleader's uniform to Jo Ann Mullins.
Chris Taylor's way with the girls to Bobby Burdette.
Joe Roberts's interest in P. O. D. to Clarice Etchison.
David Johnson's physique to Leon Simms.
Jimmie Patrick's crew-cut to Donald Cope.
Mary Jane Hipsley's athletic ability to Mildred Reid.
Mary Frances Hardy's diamond to Patty Johnson.
To the Juniors - unity and understanding.
To the Sophomores - our many activities.
To the Freshmen - our left-over graduation announcements.
To the Junior High - an interesting and successful future.
To Mr. Wolf - an errand-running carrier pigeon.
To Doris Utz - the best of luck in her future plans.
To the teachers - more practical jokes to play on each other.
To the Cafeteria Staff - a Senior Class with a small appetite.
To the Janitors - a less troublesome heating and water system.

We, the Seniors of 1955, leave . . . much to everyone's surprise.

Signed
